

TINKER BELL

2011 PREMIERE EVENT

“The little fairy Tinker Bell glows like a firefly and leaves a trail of pixie dust behind her as she flits about with the speed of a hummingbird,” Walt Disney once said of the perpetually popular pixie. But lucky for us, Tinker Bell has momentarily paused to prettily perch upon a holiday poinsettia as fiery red as Tink’s own temperament. Cute and curvaceous Tinker Bell (plussed with a pewter hair ribbon) knows how to brighten up any season.
